HISTORY

Lake Pleasant Resort and the greater Sedgfield area, previously part of the sprawling farm Ruygte Valley or Ruigtevlei, can be traced back to ownership by a dutch soldier and first Conservator of the Knysna forests, JF Meeding (approx 1785). Ruigtevlei was divided into 9 lots in 1878 with Catherine Dorethea Meeding and husband Henry Hooper inheriting Lot C from her parents. Their son Johannes Jacobus Hooper, known as James, found the first gold nugget in the nearby Karatara River in 1876, which sparked the Millwood gold rush that reached its height in 1886. James two sons, Charteris & Humphrey inherited and later subdivided Lot C into smaller portions. Charteris reportedly swam the entire length of Groenvlei & back before breakfast daily & in 1910 became the first recorded person to swim from Robben Island to Blauwbergstrand.

Humphrey's widow, Ethel (Eppie) Hooper, sold her 72 acre portion to Rory (Pat) Hennessy in October 1962. Current owners, the Lidstone family, Roger, Allannah & children Briony, Stuart & Anthea, arrived by ship from the U.K. in 1968 to assist Allannah's father, Pat Hennessy and mother Catherina (Rene), in running the already well established Resort. Initially only part owners, Roger and Allannah (Lan) purchased the remainder in 1973 and operated the Resort uninterrupted till Roger's passing in September 2011 & Lan's in April 2023.

The Resort remains Sedgfield's only privately owned self-catering & camping Resort and is managed by the 3rd generation of the Hennessy-Lidstone family, Stuart with, Lan's Companion & Caregiver, Sally v Niekerk & loyal ladies Sylvia, Abigail, Pheliswa, Sanna & Lindiwe & groundsman Jeremey, Gareth & Kalie.
